1. Four more Soviet jet fighters have been wrecked at Damgarten. The short runway makes starting difficult. A total of eleven machines have met with accidents up to date. The average number of machines at the field is 60 jet planes and 10 to 15 training and short-range reconnaissance planes. Almost the entire personnel from Peenemuende is now at Damgarten. Elements from Garz are also there. The airfield in Garz will be reopened in a short time. There are hardly any airforce troops left at Peenemuende.
2. The former Heinkel Field at Warnemuende will be graded. The large hangar will be torn down and rebuilt.
